

Re: National Library of Wales – Extension of Interim Arrangements

19 March 2020 at 16:03

We put your proposition forward to the Commissioner and he has approved the extension of the interim appointment of Meri Huws until March 2021. The Commissioner notes that given the uncertainty that we face currently, this extension is appropriate, and is the best way to move forward, more so considering that at Welsh Government you will be suspending all public appointment competitions until September 2020. The Commissioner has asked that you keep us informed when in the future, a competition is able to begin to find a new president for the National Library of Wales. If you could inform us when this extension is published, so that we may update this on our website.

Please do not hesitate to contact us at OCPA in the future if you need any help or assistance,

Yehoshua Hinton-Lewis

Office of the Commissioner for Public Appointments G/08, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ
